

The Robert Facchina
Italian American Museum of Washington DC

Voce Italiana* Grants Winter-Spring 2024-25

Student Eligibility (2 grants available):

- Students enrolled in the Italian language program in Washington DC universities, including prior grantees.
- Able to work with minimal supervision to research and write articles or interviews with local Italian Americans. Most work to be accomplished remotely, with periodic in-person meetings or at the IAM-DC and Zoom meetings.

Terms of Mini-Grant:

- 2 original articles (research and writing) of 1,000 words each.
- 2 in-person interviews with Italian/Italian-American individuals of interest in DC area (to be assigned by Voce Editor).
- All student articles and interviews will be archived in the IAMDC collection. Selected pieces will be published in Voce Italiana. Students should expect that their work will be edited and, if selected for publication (under their byline), it will be shortened to fit available space.
- Amount of grant: $1,000, payable $250 per completed article/interview (article maybe returned to student for further research).

Duration of Mini-Grant:

- Through completion of Winter/Spring Semester 2025.

Evaluation/Selection of Candidate:

- Recommendation by Italian Language or Journalism professor or Grant Committee in the case of prior grantees.
- Subsequent Interview of recommended candidates with CISC/IAMDC Grant Committee.

For more information, contact Mary Ann Re, grant program coordinator, CISC Inc/IAMDC at: maryann.re@gmail.com or 908.419.9798

Voce Italiana is the voice of Italian America in Greater Washington DC, published since 1961. The paper is a platform to share the news, happenings and accomplishments of Italians and Italian Americans, locally and beyond, and to enjoy articles on Italian culture, food, wine, the arts, travel and more.

Casa Italiana Sociocultural Center, Inc./ Italian American Museum of Washington DC, is an IRC 501(c)(3) public charity as designated by the Internal Revenue Service. All donations to Casa Italiana Sociocultural Center, Inc. are tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law. #ItalianAmericanMuseumDC